A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear friends,

Our mission calls us to put faith into action every day. At Heritage Christian Services, faithfulness is not only something we hold, it's something we practice through the way we build supports that endure. Guided by my Christian faith, I am continually reminded that our work is rooted in the call to live, serve and honor the dignity of every person.

The quality of our care doesn't happen by chance. It grows from thoughtful leadership, disciplined systems and long-term investment in people. Faith in action means creating the structures that help our teams offer consistent, compassionate support—the kind that reflects Christ's inclusive love in both word and deed.

For our workforce, quality means defined expectations, professional development and leadership commitment. Quality services depend on strong support behind the scenes. It's the quiet, faithful work that helps every employee live out our shared values each day.

As we reflect on this foundation and more than four decades of service to the community, we also celebrate 30 years of dedicated support in the Buffalo-Niagara region. What began there as a single home grounded in faith and hospitality has grown into a community that continues to thrive because people show up with love, integrity and purpose.

This year, I invite you to join us on June 3 for our inaugural Day of Giving. This is an opportunity for us all to come together in generosity to strengthen the mission that drives forward quality of care and faith in action.

When organizations build quality intentionally, people and teams are better positioned to move forward with confidence. †

With gratitude,

Marisa Geitner

FAITH Foundation's Legacy 30 Years Later

On June 3, we celebrate 30 years since the opening of the first Heritage Christian Services-operated home in western New York on Hoover Road in Sanborn. A group of parents started the FAITH Foundation, looking to provide Christian homes for their children, and asked Heritage Christian to extend their support to the Buffalo area. Anne and Mike Wolf were original members of the FAITH Foundation and upon Anne's passing in 1996, their home was transferred to Heritage Christian.

What began as a single home built on compassion and faith has grown into a wide network of support, innovation and opportunity. Through changing landscapes and expanding services, one thing has never wavered: our commitment to offering high-quality, person-centered care. For three decades in the Buffalo-Niagara region, we've walked alongside people and their families, adapting to changing needs while staying rooted in our mission. The foundation laid at the home on Hoover Road continues to guide us forward, with gratitude for the past and confidence in the future. †

"When I was offered a direct support professional position at Heritage Christian Services, I was not planning for it to turn into a career. Here I am, three decades later! I have stayed because the agency has been flexible in supporting me through the seasons of my life, like relocating regions, having children and supporting my aging mom. I am blessed to be part of this family."

– CARRIE HALLOCK, office manager

Our Child Care in Webster Turns 10

Since opening under the Expressive Beginnings Child Care name in 2016, the Webster location has welcomed more than 1,400 children, ranging from infants to age 12. Celebrating 10 years, Expressive Beginnings Webster currently serves nearly 400 children and employs several staff members who attended the center as children.

"It's pretty awesome knowing that my son is growing up in the same environment that I did. The main thing that feels the same is the nurturing environment," said Liz Ahearn, a former EBCC student who now sends her own child there. "That's part of the reason why we chose [EBCC], along with all of the green space available to play." To see more of what the students are up to, visit the EBCC Facebook page or ExpressiveBeginningsChildCare.org. †

The home on Hoover Road was generously transferred to Heritage Christian Services by the Wolf family.

"The people I've worked with throughout the years are the reason I stay at Heritage Christian Services. They've taught me humility and given me grace when I needed it."

– COLLEEN BENSON, residence manager

To celebrate the 10th anniversary, children at the child care created a collaborative art project and enjoyed sheet cake.

Building Bridges of Faith and Belonging

Joe Best and Diane Sturmer enjoy a moment of fellowship at the Heritage Christian Fall Summit.

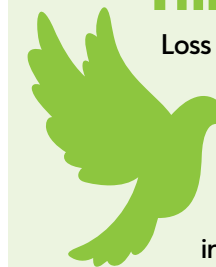

President & C.E.O. Marisa Geitner says that commitment has been part of Heritage Christian since its earliest days. "This team has reported directly to the president since our founding, and that has always mattered," she said. "I'm proud of the day-to-day involvement I have with their work. I see the impact and know this level of investment is a true differentiator for Heritage Christian Services. Most providers simply don't have anything like it." Team members have regularly been invited to share this unique work at local, statewide and national gatherings.

Their work also reaches the staff members who walk alongside the people that choose our services, whether it's through encouragement, listening, prayer, team-building activities or on-site presence to help teams stay grounded, connected and cared for.

In May, Heritage Christian Services also hosted the annual conference for the Council of Reformed Charities welcoming leaders of faith-based service organizations from across the country for conversation, fellowship and learning.

HERITAGE CHRISTIAN SERVICES IN GUATEMALA

Ilesha Eldridge, a customized supports coordinator, volunteered in Guatemala last fall.

Sharing Faith, Friendship and Opportunity

For more than two decades, Heritage Christian Services has shared a partnership in Guatemala grounded in faith, friendship and a belief in the dignity of every person.

The connection began in 2001, when the first volunteers traveled to Guatemala through Heritage Christian Services' International Ministries program.

Through the agency's long-standing partnership with Bethel Ministries International, teams return each year to expand opportunity and belonging for people with disabilities. Since beginning, Heritage Christian volunteers have built 17 homes, distributed roughly 600 wheelchairs and have served more than 3,400 people through camps and related programs.

Our trips in 2025 included building homes, distributing mobility equipment and supporting

GUATEMALA, Page 8

Some work happens quietly, but its impact reaches every corner of Heritage Christian Services.

The members of the faith community inclusion team — Diane Sturmer, Sherry Gricar, Joe Starling and Padraic Collins-Bohrer — support people to make meaningful connections with their faith and faith communities.

The team's work reflects the diverse faith traditions of the people served. They help people connect with faith communities and traditions, celebrate milestones such as weddings, baptisms, holiday observances and community gatherings, and walk alongside people as they grieve life's hardest moments.

"We're in hospitals, homes and programs — visiting, praying with someone, supporting the staff members who are there, especially when someone is very ill or nearing the end of life," said Starling. For Sturmer, at the agency since 1987, the heart of the role remains the same.

"My original title was community bridge builder," she said. "That's still what we're doing, building bridges between people and the things that are important to them."

Sometimes that means supporting someone through grief or hospice care. Other times, it's creating moments of joy: retreats, dance, music or time outdoors.

As people supported by Heritage Christian age, this work becomes even more important, helping ensure that spiritual health remains part of the compassionate, person-centered support that defines our commitment to quality.

three weeklong camps welcoming children, teens and adults of all abilities. During that trip, volunteers supported the distribution of wheelchairs, walkers, canes and crutches that offered greater mobility and independence to 80 people.

Wade Blackman is a long-term volunteer in Guatemala, and works as an LPN at Heritage Christian.

The camps are filled with simple moments that grow into lasting connections, including daily activities, games, worship and shared meals, creating space for laughter, confidence and belonging. The volunteers who participate represent a wide range of roles across Heritage Christian Services, and each brings home experiences that deepen their connection to the mission and influence their daily work.

For Matt Smeltzer, success coach, one of those connections began at a drawing table when Edgar, an aspiring artist who had lost his hands in a fire, joined him to sketch.

"It was really empowering for him," Smeltzer said. "He saw that someone believed in him and that he had a real talent he could develop."

Kids attending one of the week-long inclusion camps enjoy some time playing games outside.

Joan Levato, associate director of quality advancement, experienced a similar moment with a man named Gudy. One evening, Levato paused to pray with a mother. "Gudy came right up next to her and put his hand on her, and his other hand on her son," Levato recalled. "It was just a beautiful moment."

DONOR SPOTLIGHT: Lynn and Pete Sarratori

Lynn and Pete Sarratori have supported Heritage Christian Services for many years as members of both our Leadership Circle and Legacy Society, first connecting with the agency through Rochester Rotary Sunshine Camp. Recently, after meeting with their attorney, they chose to include Heritage Christian as a beneficiary of their individual retirement account.

Heritage Christian gives so many people quality of life and families peace of mind. This is something we want to see continue for years to come."

Heritage Christian Services is grateful to generous Leadership Circle and Legacy Society donors like Lynn and Pete who have included our agency in their estate and annual giving plans. THE IMPACT OF GIVING

In 2025, your generosity made these moments possible:

76 people are now living in homes newly designed to help them age in place with dignity, safety and independence.

43 dancers took the stage in the Heart of Dance "Coming Home" performance, celebrating creativity, confidence and belonging.

80 people received properly fitted wheelchairs, increasing mobility, independence and access to daily life through our International Ministries program.

2 homes were built in Guatemala, providing safe shelter and stability for families who previously lived without adequate housing.

44 families facing food insecurity received Thanksgiving dinners through the Children's Health Home of Upstate New York sponsored program, ensuring they could celebrate the holiday with a full table.

1,600 caring professionals were affected by a salary increase.

Want to Make an Impact?

The inaugural Heritage Christian Services Day of Giving is June 3, and your gift can support our mission of creating opportunities and community for children, older adults and people with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

New Beginnings at the Walter Hubbell Home on Stream View Circle

Community members, government officials and Heritage Christian Services employees gathered on Stream View Circle in Perinton to celebrate the ribbon cutting for the Walter Hubbell Home. The new residence, made possible through the Homes with Heart campaign, reflects a shared commitment to helping people age in place with dignity and comfort.

During the celebration, several of the men who live at the home joined donors and elected officials to cut the ribbon together, marking the beginning of a new chapter in a space created for endless possibilities. Derek Scott, the Hubbell home's residence manager with more than 18 years of tenure, shared, "We are looking forward to the future and the good things and memories that will come with our new home." †

People of possibility

SPiRiT is a biannual publication of Heritage Christian Services.

AT HERITAGE CHRISTIAN SERVICES, WE BELIEVE IN ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES.

Heritage Christian Services, established in 1984, strives to advance an inclusive and equitable community. Our more than 3,900 employees provide services that ensure meaningful and diverse experiences for children, older adults and people with developmental disabilities. Based in western New York, with concentrations in the Finger Lakes and Buffalo-Niagara regions, we're innovating and expanding as the needs of our community grow. We offer people programs that promote housing options — and the support within them — along with programs that create relevant employment and day habilitation; establish high-quality child care; set the standard for statewide workforce education; ensure robust health and wellness; and embrace self-empowerment.
